“SAVIOR OF LIFE” EXHIBITION AT CSUN

NORTH RIDGE - On October 26, Ambassador Armen Babirourtian, Consul General of Armenia in Los Angeles, visited the exhibition titled “Savior of Life” organized by the Armenian National Institute, the Armenian Assembly of America and the CSUN Armenian Studies Program. The event was held at the West Gallery of California State University in Northridge. The exhibition documented the heroic work of two YMCA relief workers from the U.S., John Elder and James Arnoll, who saved thousands of lives in the first Republic of Armenia in 1918-1919 coordinating the entire U.S. humanitarian assistance. Dr. Ruben Adayian, Director of the Armenian National Institute presented 26 panels of exhibition activities of two American heroes at a crucial time for the Armenian nation.

Ambassador Babirourtian welcomed the initiative of organizing the exhibition, emphasizing that it sheds light on unknown pages of American humanitarian activities in Armenia and the roots of Armenian-American historical friendship.

“Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that it is the policy of the United States to—(1) commemorate the Armenian Genocide through official recognition and remembrance; (2) reject efforts to enlist, engage, or otherwise associate the United States Government with denial of the Armenian Genocide or any other genocide; and (3) encourage education and public understanding of the facts of the Armenian Genocide, including the United States role in the humanitarian relief effort, and the relevance of the Armenian Genocide to modern-day crimes against humanity.”

Greek President promises Sarkissian to do everything to accelerate visa liberalization with EU

YEREVAN, NOVEMBER 5, ARMENPRESS - President of Greece Procopis Pavlopoulos promised Armenian President Armen Sarkissian that Greece will do everything possible for Armenia to accelerate the visa liberalization process with the European Union.

“We talked about the facilitation of the entry to the EU for our citizens, so that visas will be liberalized for ordinary citizens, and my good friend, Mr. President, promised that they will do everything possible to accelerate this process”, the Armenian President said at a joint press conference with his Greek counterpart in Yerevan.
WASHINGTON, D.C. – Following the historic and overwhelming bipartisan vote in favor of H.Res. 296 in the House of Representatives, the Armenian Assembly of America (AAA) prepares for passage of the stand-alone Senate resolution on the Armenian Genocide, S.Res.150.

“Given the ongoing reality and dangers of genocide and ethnic cleansing – whether the Kurds, the Rohingya, or the Armenians of Artsakh – we strongly support passage of the Senate Genocide Resolution and welcome the increasing calls by numerous Senators to adopt it,” stated the Assembly Executive Director Bryan Ardoyou.

S.Res.150 expresses the sense of the Senate that it is the policy of the United States to commemorate the Armenian Genocide through official recognition and remembrance.

At a news conference this week, Sen- ate Minority Leader Charles Schumer (D-NY) called for the Senate to take up the Armenian Genocide resolution and said “On Armenian Genocide, I’ve been a be- liever of this for a long time. Turks don’t like to hear it because the truth hurts. And if we don’t stand up to one genocide, we won’t stand up to any.”

Introduced this April by Senators Bob Menendez (D-NJ) and Ted Cruz (R-TX), S.Res.150 expresses “the sense of the Sen- ate that it is the policy of the United States to commemorate the Armenian Genocide through official recognition and remem- brance.” Among the cosponsors, Schumer and Cruz, the bill is supported by Sena- tors Cory Booker (D-NJ), Benjamin Cardin (D-MD), John Cornyn (R-TX), Tammy Duckworth (D-IL), Nineveh Fein- stein (D-CA), Cory Gardner (R-CO), Ka- mala Harris (D-CA), Amy Klobuchar (D- MN), Edward Markey (D-MA), Gary Peters (D-MI), Jack Reed (R-RI), Marco Rubio (R-FL), Bernard Sanders (I-VT), Charles Schumer (D-NY), Debbie Stabenow (D-MI), Tom Udall (D-NM), Chris Van Hollen (D-MD), Elizabeth War- ren (D-MA), Sheldon Whitehouse (D-RI) and Ron Wyden (D-OR).

Earlier this week, Senator Ted Cruz tweeted before the House vote. “I call on my Senate colleagues to expeditiously consider and pass a resolution I intro- duced with @SenatorMenendez to of- ficially recognize the ArmenianGenocide & reject all forms of its denial.”

After the House adopted H.Res.296, Senator Ed Markey (D-MA) said “Amer- ica must stop denying the truth that what happened in Armenia was a genocide. I hope the House passes this resolution to formally recognize the Armenian Geno- cide and the Senate quickly does the same. Congress must speak with one voice and unequivocally condemn this horror.”

“I join the Armenian American com- munity in MA and the rest of the Ameri- can diaspora in celebrating the House passage of a resolution recognizing the Armenian Genocide. I cosponsored S.Res.150 to recognize this tragedy. The Senate should pass it now,” Senator Eliz- abeth Warren (D-MA) remarked.

Former Senator Joe Biden (D-DE) wel- comed passage in the House stating that “By acknowledging this genocide we honor the memory of its victims and vow: never again.”

“Last night’s overwhelming vote in the House of Representatives—405 to 11—to recognize the genocide of 1.5 mil- lion Armenians by the Ottoman Empire is long overdue. It’s time for the Senate to do the same. Acknowledging history is the first step towards not repeating it,” Senator Chris Van Hollen (D-MD) stated.

H.Res. 296 specifically states that it is the sense of the House of Representatives that it is the policy of the United States to:
1. commemorate the Armenian Genocide through official recognition and remembrance;
2. reject efforts to enlist, engage, other otherwise associate with denial of the Ar- menian Genocide or any other genocide; and
3. encourage education and public un- derstanding of the facts of the Armenian Genocide, including the United States role in the humanitarian relief effort, and the relevance of the Armenian Genocide to modern-day crimes against humanity.

“This week’s victory in the House officially renews and makes abundantly clear the U.S. record on the Armenian Genocide,” stated Assembly Executive Director Bryan Ardoyou. “Pas- sage of H.Res. 296 by the House of Rep- resentatives reflects the best of America. It honors a proud chapter in U.S. history of humanitarian intervention, officially commemorates the Armenian Genocide, rejects genocide denial, and encourages education to help prevent future geno- cides,” Ardoyou continued.

The Armenian Assembly of America has worked vigorously since the 1970s to combat the dangers of genocide denial and fully supports affirmation of the U.S. record on the Armenian Genocide in both the House and the Senate.”

“HENRY MORGENTHAU” MEDAL TO RICHARD HOVANNISIAN

On October 20 and 23, with a world known Armenian-American his- torian Professor Richard Hovannisian took place at the Armenian Genocide Museum-Institute Foundation. On October 20, the Armenian Geno- cide Museum-Institute hosted the participants of the annual “Teach for All” International conference program. The guest speaker of the event was Prof. Hovannisian. After welcoming the guests, AGMI Director Dr. Harutyun Marutyan awarded professor Richard Hovannisian with “Henry Morgen- thau” medal for his significant contribu- tion to the study and recognition of the Armenian Genocide.

On October 23, at the conference hall of the Armenian Genocide Museum-In- stitute professor Richard Hovannisian delivered another public lecture.

Honored for Lifetime Commitment to Armenian Genocide Studies

Professor Richard Hovannisian re- ceived on October 22 the most recent edition of the “Lori Rug,” which is given by the historic Megean Carpet Factory in Yerevan to leading advocates for the recognition of the Armenian Genocide. “Only 100 such rugs will be created,” said Raffi Megean. “Among its recipi- ents are George Clooney, the Pope, and now Richard Hovannisian - who has spent his half-century career pioneering the scholarship of the Armenian Geno- cide.”

Richard Hovannisian was in Yere- van for the Teach For All annual global conference, co-hosted by Teach For Ar- menia, to deliver a series of lectures to 500 guests from 80 countries on Armen- ian history and the effects of the Ar- menian Genocide on modern-day Armenians.

A founder of Armenian Studies in the United States and the past holder of the AEF Chair in Modern Armenian History at UCLA, Dr. Hovannisian has been on the frontlines of the quest to bring recognition and justice for the Ar- menian Genocide. His tireless advocacy in making the Armenian Genocide a mandatory part of the California educa- tion curriculum has been fundamen- tal. His vast oral history collection of genocide survivors, now at the Shosh Foundation at USC, is the single most important oral history collection on the Armenian Genocide. His dozens of books on the lost provinces of Western Armenia have become must-reads for anyone wanting to understand what ex- actly was lost in the genocide. His one- man war to stop academic publishers from printing works of denial has been one of his most underrated services to the cause.

Dr. Hovannisian not only founded the Chair of Modern Armenian History at UCLA, but he also prevented a de- nialist Turkish chair from forming at that university. And he supported the founding of other chairs across the country, institutionalizing the study of Armenian history and the Armenian genocide for generations to come.

“Dr. Hovannisian has not only writ- ten history,” said Larisa Hovannisian, Founder of Teach For Armenia and the professor’s daughter-in-law. “He has made it.”

YEREVAN, NOVEMBER 5, ARMENPRESS. Armenia is among the top three countries from 65 assessed states to have recorded the biggest progress in 2019 in internet freedom, according to Freedom House.

Armenia is ranked as “free” in the Freedom on the Net 2019 report. Armenia and France are both ranked 8th with 76 points. In 2018 Armenia was 13th.

“Armenia, positive changes unsealed by the 2018 Velvet Revolution continued, with reformist prime minister Nikol Pashinyan presiding over a reductio in restrictions on content and violations of users’ rights.
